

Resource Guide for Elementary School Students

In this guide you will find resources that DIG has compiled for you to use.

How to use: Each resource has an icon with a link embedded in it. When you click on the icon it will take you to the resource

Energy Efficiency & Conservation

How You Can Save Energy

Find out how kids and their families can use less energy.

Energy Star Kids

Website dedicated to teaching kids how to become energy-efficient through games, lesson plans and fun facts.

Energy Hog

Series of games that teach kids how to avoid behaviors and actions that are not energy-efficient.

Water Quality & Conservation

Water, Water Everywhere

Facts about water and the water cycle

Family Water Conservation Plan

Cyberchase at-home activity allows kids to think about all the times water is used at home each day.

Water Conservation Workbook

Here you can find activities in water conservation designed to be printed out and enjoyed offline.

Waste Reduction & Recycling

The Planet Protectors

Interesting printables for the kids to work on.

Kids Environment Kids Health

A resource for kids, parents, and teachers to find fun and educational materials related to health, science, and the environment we live in today.

The Imagination Factory

Art projects for children using recycled materials.

General Science

Earth Matters 4 Kids

Earth Matters correlates science with basic environmental principles, helping teachers and students gain a full understanding of how science works.

NatGeo Kids

National Geographic kids supports research, exploration and brings natural resources that can be used in classroom.

Frontiers for Young Minds

Science for kids, edited for kids. An open-access scientific journal written by scientists and reviewed by a board of kids.